Perry J. Martin, who secured the prize of $40 among the seniors of the Wabash College at Crawfordsville, Ind., "cribbed" his address. He was found out, confessed, surrendered the $40, refused permission to graduate, and dismissed from college. Martin says he had no idea he would be successful. When he sent in his paper he had a desire only to make a creditable showing before the Faculty.

On the night of the 1st of April a young man placed a railroad torpedo under a board by a gate, in the suburbs of Sacramento, and when Charles Sexton stepped on to it to open the gate for a young lady, the thing exploded. Sexton believed he was shot at, and told how the shot whistled by his ear, and the practical joker has been arrested on a charge of assault to murder.

The female politicians played a brief but profitless engagement in the municipal campaigns in Kansas. Out of a score of feminine tickets in the field, one woman managed to secure office, whereas two years ago more than a dozen towns were swept by the suffragists. Gallantry is on the wane in Kansas.

Neither Sullivan nor Jackson will be in fit condition to contest for $15,000 or any other sum if they remain in the East much longer. With Sullivan spreading in New York and Jackson carrying all before him in the quarter known in Cincinnati as "over the Rhine," the chances for their meeting in the roped ring are exceedingly small.

While it means ruin to hundreds of rural dwellers, still it is a relief to learn that the break in the levees of the Mississippi above the City of New Orleans saves the metropolis from being inundated. Had the flood come into the city, as was anticipated, there would have been immense loss of life.

The Oregonian Railroad Line, narrow-gauge, including all the rolling stock, depots, etc., was sold Friday at Portland, and R. Koehler, of the Southern Pacific, was the purchaser at $1,000,000. This formally gives the Southern Pacific Company title to the narrow-gauge lines recently purchased by it.

The progress thus far made in framing the new Tariff bill has been remarkably rapid, considering the many interests that are involved. After a long discussion in the House a new measure satisfactory to all parties may be finally passed.

Union of the East and West.

The New York Commercial Advertiser says: The nuptials of Herman Oelrichs to Miss Fair will create more than an ordinary ripple in this gay world of ours. Oelrichs is one of the most popular bachelors East, and Miss Fair one of the greatest heiresses of the Pacific Coast. So it is a union of the East and West.

Pennsylvania Politics.

Ordinarily the canvass for the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination in Pennsylvania, with its 80,000 Republican majority, is regarded of very little account, but this year the Pennsylvania Democrats declare that it is of national significance. There are two aspirants, Wallace and Patterson. If Wallace gets the prize the Pennsylvania politicians say that the Pennsylvania delegation in the next Democratic National Convention will be for Governor Hill; if Patterson is victorious, the delegation will be likely to favor Mr. Cleveland. —Boston Journal.

A dispatch from Washington states that one of the effects of the passage of either of the silver bills now before Congress, would be to shut down work in the Carson Mint, which is chiefly devoted to the coining of standard dollars. The people of Nevada can look forward to such a contingency with equanimity, for if either the amended Wadsworth or Jones' bill passes there will be such a boost given to silver mining that the few men thrown out of employment will find no difficulty in securing equally lucrative positions in the revived industry. —San Francisco Chronicle.

DON'T STOP ON THE STREETS.—"There is one rule of etiquette that I see violated every day I walk on the streets," said a lady yesterday. "When a gentleman meets a lady of his acquaintance on the street to whom he wishes to speak, he should turn and walk with her until he says what he wishes to say, and then go about his business. To stop and talk is distinctly bad form. Why? Well, principally because it is so. And there is reason in the rule, too. It delays the lady. It makes her conspicuous, and on a busy thoroughfare it is a nuisance to other pedestrians. The streets were made to walk in, and not to make visits in." —Rochester Democrat.

THE PRESIDENT'S MISTAKE.—"When I was getting ready to come to England," says John C. Newell, "my tailor in Washington told me that I must surely wear spats (over-gaiters), and he made me a pair of white duck. I wore them by way of experiment one day to the White House and I noticed as I sat talking to the people in the East Room that President Harrison eyed me askance. Presently he got up and beckoned me to come outside, and when we got into the hall he whispered nervously: 'John, your drawers are hanging down below your pants!'"

Agents of a great English paper mill syndicate have purchased the Remington Paper Company of Watertown, N. Y.; the Hudson River Pulp and Paper Company of Palmer Falls, N. Y.; Glens Falls Paper Manufacturing Company and the Rochester, N. Y., Paper Company. The purchase price is said to be $8,000,000. The main office is said to be located at New York, but perhaps the price of paper will be regulated in London.

CYCLONE IN ILLINOIS.

CORBETT IS NOT AFRAID OF SULLIVAN KNOCKING HIM OUT.

Stanley Coming Home—"Canada on Wheels"—National Convention Speculations.

"Canada on Wheels."

Special to the JOURNAL.

OTTAWA, April 7.—The Northwest delegates, who have been in session two weeks to-day, submitted a number of suggestions to the Minister of Agriculture for promoting immigration to the Northwest. They proposed that the Government send former representatives to different nationalities settled in the Northwest to their respective countries to post their countrymen upon the resources and adaptability of Canada, and that the Government grant a bonus to any company or corporation who shall secure the location in any country of one bona fide settler; also that the Government send through Great Britain an exhibition car containing samples of Canadian cereals, fruits and minerals.

Another Brutal Army Officer.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BISMARCK, N. D., April 7.—The court-martial on Captain Focket for alleged drunkenness and brutality began to-day at Fort Yates, a military station about seventy miles from here. A good deal of interest is manifested in the trial, the sympathy of the public being with those who allege they were assaulted by the Captain when he was under the influence of liquor. The recent investigation of Lieutenant Steele in Chicago has had the result of directing public attention to the court-martial now sitting at Fort Yates, as the charges against Captain Focket are more numerous and even more serious than those preferred against Steele by private Wild.

The House Proceedings.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—On the motion of Morrow, of California, the House suspended the rules and passed the bill reported from the Committee on Ways and Means to credit the Collector of Internal Revenue of the first District of California with $810 for revenue stamps destroyed by fire in the Postoffice at Fresno, July 3, 1889. The stamps are now in transit from the Deputy Collector to the Collector. The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Naval Appropriation bill, but adjourned without action.

Corbett to Sullivan.

Special to the JOURNAL.

NEW YORK, April 7.—In regard to the statement that Sullivan is said to have made that he could stop Corbett in four rounds, the latter said to-day: "I will give him an opportunity to try it at my benefit at the Fifth Avenue Casino, Brooklyn, next Monday night; when I will spar Sullivan four rounds, and if I do not succeed in besting him he can have the entire gate receipts. I am also willing to wager from $5,000 upward that he cannot put me to sleep in four rounds."

A Verdict for $23,362.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—The suit of Captain John Cox against Attorney D. M. Delmas, to recover $33,000, value of certain claims against a judgment Cox recovered in his suit against Charles McLaughlin resulted in the jury to-day awarding Cox $22,862. Delmas purchased the claims in the last named suit and Cox claimed it was on his advice and for his benefit that the purchase was made.

The Sharon Estate Wins a Point.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—In the United States Court to-day Judge Sawyer read the decision confirming the report of the Master in Chancery sustaining the exceptions to the answer of defendants in the master of the Sharon estate vs. Sarah Athene and David S. Terry. The decision has the effect of granting the bill of review sued for by Francis G. Newlands.

M. E. Conference Report.

Special to the JOURNAL.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The Committee of the M. E. Conference in its report repudiated the recent decision of the Supreme Court regarding the decision of reading the bible in public schools and said it was the duty of Christian citizens to claim for the bible a place wherever the State attempts to educate the youth for the duties of citizenship.

The Montana Senators.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Spooner, member of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, made an argument in favor of the majority report that Saunders and Power, the Republican claimants, are entitled to their seats, and after an executive session the Senate adjourned.

Another Cyclone.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, April 7.—The report reaches here late to-night by railroad wires that Prophettstown, Illinois, has been partially blown away by a cyclone and many people were killed. No other particulars were learned as the wires are prostrated by the storm.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTIONS.

Speculation as to Their Probable Location in 1892.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Already there is an occasional discussion in the committee rooms, the hotels and lobbies as to the city in which the National Conventions of both parties should be held in 1892; of course Chicago will be in the field for the prize, and it is thought there will be but little opposition to her claims, if she can convince the National Committees that she is capable of accommodating the people. This will, it is thought, be a rather difficult task, as about that time the World's Exposition will be almost ready for the opening, which occurs in October, of 1892, and it is presumed that the city will, on this account, be crowded with visitors. The old fight between Chicago and St. Louis which at first was amusing, but now has become bore-some, will be renewed. If Chicago cannot obtain the conventions herself she will oppose the claims of St. Louis with all her power and will favor any other city in the country that shows a chance of winning the favor of a majority of the committee. The question has been brought up now by a Minnesota delegation, who are already in the field and urging the claims of Minneapolis for the conventions. Chicago feels very kindly towards Minnesota, whose Congressional delegation nobly supported the Garden City for the Fair, and will out of gratitude favor Minneapolis if it has accommodations for the multitude.

Suing Her Mother-In-Law.

Special to the JOURNAL.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The suit of Mrs. Wilhelmina Staudinger against her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Ann Staudinger, for the alienation of the affections of her husband, came up on a motion in the Superior Court to-day. The sum involved is $10,000.

Rudolph Staudinger, the husband of the plaintiff and a well-known restauranteur, at the age of 22 secretly married Miss Wilhelmina, then only 18. When Mr. Staudinger's mother heard of the marriage she made serious objections. Her daughter-in-law claimed that she was a purse-prudent old lady and objected to her son marrying one below his station. She told Rudolph that he must choose between love in a tenement on nothing a year or a home with her without his wife. Rudolph chose the latter, and hence the suit. As he has failed to provide for his wife, an allowance has been asked for during the progress of the cause.

Mrs. Staudinger, Sr., says in her defense, that her son voluntarily left his wife, and that he is too poor to provide for her. Looks Like Patricide.

Special to the JOURNAL.

HOMER, N. Y., April 7.—Jerome Baker, aged 55, was found at his home yesterday afternoon with his throat cut from ear to ear, the head being nearly severed from the body. In the adjoining room was the son, Charles Baker. He was fully dressed and lay on the bed asleep. He was aroused with difficulty. There were several small gashes on the left side of his neck. In reply to questions he said he got up about 10 o'clock in the morning and found his father lying near him with his throat cut. He made no explanation of his failing to give an alarm. Two blood-stained razors were found in the house. Young Baker was arrested and lodged in jail at Cortland. Jerome Baker a few years ago was worth $50,000, all of which he lost through speculation.

Deceived and Deserted.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 7.—Eva Stoggs, aged twenty, who says her parents reside on Canal street, New York city, where her father is a basket maker, was found by the police last night, wandering about in the rain, with a month-old infant in her arms. The girl says she left New York about December 1 with David Cross, after a marriage ceremony had been performed, and came here about Christmas. Cross left her after telling her the marriage was bogus. She had no money, and after pawning a diamond ring, had been living on charity. She is quite pretty.

The Negro's Welfare.

Special to the JOURNAL.

LONDON, April 7.—A meeting was held to-day at the Mansion House, under the presidency of the Lord Mayor, to consider questions affecting the welfare of African races, in connection with the international conference at Brussels. Earl Granville moved a resolution of thanks to the King of Belgium for having convened the conference and for the great pecuniary sacrifices which he had made in respect to the Congo Free State.

An Excellent Bill.

Special to the JOURNAL.

LONDON, April 7.—Mr. Labouchere has obtained permission to introduce a bill in Parliament providing for the enlargement of the functions of the County Council by giving to that body the control of the police, the regulation of the gas and water supply, market rights, powers to improve the dwellings of the working classes and an amended system of taxation.

The Panama Road.

Special to the JOURNAL.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Panama railway resulted in the re-election of the old Board of Directors for the year 1889. The surplus earnings were $384,149, a decrease of $766,394, due to suspension work on the canal in the early part of the year.

Stanley Coming Home.

Special to the JOURNAL.

CAIRO, April 7.—Stanley left to-day for Brussels.

Special to the JOURNAL.

Agents of a great English paper mill syndicate have purchased the Remington Paper Company of Watertown, N. Y.; the Hudson River Pulp and Paper Company of Palmer Falls, N. Y.; Glens Falls Paper Manufacturing Company and the Rochester, N. Y., Paper Company. The purchase price is said to be $8,000,000. The main office is said to be located at New York, but perhaps the price of paper will be regulated in London.

WIGGINS EXPLAINS THE TORNADO.

The Canadian Weather Prophet Tells What He Knows About Nature's Ways.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 1.—Regarding the tornado in Kentucky, Prof. Stone Wiggins says it was caused by the peculiar relation of the planets to the earth, which rocked the north Atlantic like the rocking of a ship in a storm. The same effect was produced upon the atmosphere. He says the sun and moon keep two currents always in motion, but when other heavenly bodies unite with the former the velocity of these currents is increased and when their speed is sufficient they break into whirlpools which we call cyclones. When the sun is south of the equator the Atlantic current keeps off shore and is very dangerous to shipping. When, however, the sun and the moon happen to be on the equator and are moving northward, this current is deflected upon the continent and breaks into cyclones.

The professor says he knew that if the northern and southern currents united over Nova Scotia without previously breaking into cyclones, there would be a disastrous tidal wave along the coast of New England. To Wiggins' prediction of this great storm is said to be due the fact that not a single Canadian vessel was lost, all being harbored.

The Handel and Hayden Society.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BOSTON, April 7.—The Handel and Hayden Society will celebrate the seventy-fifth anniversary of its organization to-morrow night by a grand concert. This society occupies a prominent position among the musical organizations of the world, of which it is one of the oldest. While the former concerts have been educational the series now to be given are intended chiefly to emphasize the character of the society and its achievements. Carl Zerrahn, who for forty years has directed the society's performances, will wield the baton at this festival, and the organ will be under the hand of J. B. Lang, for many years the society's competent supporter.

"The Portland."

Special to the JOURNAL.

PORTLAND, Or., April 7.—"The Portland," the new hotel just completed at a cost of over half a million dollars, was formally opened to-day. The structure is of brick and stone, and occupies a full block two hundred feet square; is six stories in height and contains accommodations for four hundred and fifty guests.

The management of the hotel is under Charles E. Leland, formerly of Niagara Falls, N. Y.

San Francisco Postoffice Site.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—The U. S. Commissioners on public buildings at San Francisco have advertised for bids for the sale of a site for the Postoffice in this city. Bids to be opened here April 22, 1890.

Death of a Noted Plute.

A correspondent of the Silver State writing from Paradise Valley says Captain George, the most prominent Plute and highest authority in Indian affairs in the valley, died last Wednesday afternoon. He had ever been the unflinching friend of the whites and always quiet and peaceable. The Plutes fall "heep bad" over his death as they all looked to him for advice in times of trouble. Captain George being a good Indian is beyond doubt now basking in the sunshine on the green slopes of the happy hunting grounds.

MISS FLORA FINLAYSON.

An Enthusiastic Reception Given Her at the Opera House Sunday Evening.

Saturday evening's train from the East brought to Reno a most welcome guest—Miss Flora Finlayson, at present a member of "The Bostonians." A few years ago "Flo," well-known, loved, admired, was always a favorite performer in every musical and literary entertainment given in the town, and the jam at the Opera House Sunday evening, hundreds going away unable to get into the building, was an added proof of her popularity, as well as a deserved tribute to the successful development of her glorious voice. The Easter service was under the auspices of the Congregational Society, Rev. Mr. Magill, pastor. An opening prayer was followed by a quartette, "It is Well with My Soul," Mrs. Franklin Poor, soprano; Miss Jessie Finlayson, alto; Mr. Lindsay, bass; Mr. Evans, tenor; Miss Quaife, organist, and then Miss Flora Finlayson sang Parker's "Jerusalem." There was an utter stillness as those grand notes thrilled the hearts of that immense audience of friends, and the occasion alone presented outspoken and rapturous applause. Bible reading was supplemented by the anthem, "Come Holy Spirit," by the choir, after Miss Finlayson gave Mendelssohn's, "The Lord is Mindful." Mr. Magill delivered a short, but impressive Easter sermon, and then Reno's sweet singer stood once more before the people. Her selection, "There is a Green Hill Far Away," by Gounod, showed the sympathetic quality of her marvelous contralto, the upper notes coming clear, pure and strong, veritable waves of melody, and the low tones, swelling with the vibrating depths and sweetness of an organ. Miss Finlayson could spend but the day at her old home, but in those few hours her willingness to give pleasure to her friends increased the long list of those who "remember well," and wish for a speedy return.

"The Great Metropolis."

This celebrated play will be presented on the boards of the Opera House on Wednesday, April 9th. The following press notice shows how this company is appreciated:

"The Rial & Morris Company had a most successful opening last evening in the Grand Opera House, San Francisco, in their new celebrated play, "The Great Metropolis; or the Life Savers of Sandy Hook." The play is intrinsically one of unusual merit in plot and dialogue, with many strong situations, full of stirring scenes, some of which appeal with powerful effect to the finer sympathies of the audience. As presented last evening it completely realized all the high anticipations awakened by press notices, that seemed effusively lavish of praise, but which are fully justified in the light of the stage presence of the play. The characters are well presented by the members of the company, which is exceptionally strong and effective. The audience was one of the largest that ever attended a first night since the house was opened, and the hearty applause that frequently interrupted the play and attended every climax, showed that they were completely carried away by the splendid rendition of the play by the company.

Business Reviving.

The Truckee Republican of last Wednesday says the Spring trade along the river has now started and the millmen report numerous orders for lumber and inquiries concerning further supplies. Geo. Schaffer commenced shipping to-day and is filling orders received during the Winter. He has orders on hand for 800,000 feet of lumber which will nearly exhaust his stock on hand. Pat Henry expects to commence tomorrow and has orders for 500,000 feet which will take half of his stock on hand. The Pacific L. & W. Co. has been shipping for the past two weeks and report plenty of orders yet to be filled. The Boca Mill Co. is also fast using up its stock on hand. Richardson Bros. are using up their stock in the manufacture of boxes and have all the orders they care for in this line. The Truckee Lumber Co.'s factory will probably start up next week on boxes.

The Verdi factory has been running full handed for sometime and has used up Lonkey's lumber and is drawing heavily upon the other lumber dealers for supplies. Business for this time of the year is very active and before the mills can get a new stock lumber promises to be scarce. The outlook is very favorable for a prosperous season with the millmen.

Fireman Killed.

While a helping engine was waiting on a siding at Martin, Utah, last Sunday night for the fast mail, west-bound, Frank McLean, the fireman, stepped across the track just in time to be struck by the engine of the mail train, which does not stop there. Engineer Kowse ran to him, but after a slight movement of the shoulders, he was dead. The body was taken to Terrace, where his young wife lives. He has been married only two months.

SUICIDE AT WADSWORTH.

H. M. Geiger Tired, of Life Ends It. H. M. Geiger, business manager for the firm of E. Griswold & Co., of Wadsworth, and son of Dr. D. M. Geiger, the builder of the celebrated Geiger grade, committed suicide in his room at Wadsworth yesterday morning at 7:20 by shooting himself through the head with a 38-caliber Smith & Wesson revolver.

From the position of the body when found, it is evident that Geiger stood before the large mirror which hangs on the east wall of his room, and placing the muzzle of the pistol to his right temple, deliberately pulled the trigger and blew his brains out. The flash of the powder singed the hair and the ball went through the head almost horizontally and lodged in the north wall of the room.

The skull was fearfully shattered and the flow of blood so large that it formed a pool covering a square yard.

It was a ghastly sight for Frank Rhodes, the employee who found him, to come upon unexpectedly.

The Coroner's jury found a verdict to the effect that he came to his death by a pistol wound inflicted by himself.

When the body was examined by the Coroner's jury some $600 was found on his person.

Geiger was around town Sunday night in apparent good spirits, and no cause can be found for the rash deed. He left no papers of any kind, nor does his recent correspondence show any cause that would lead to the above result. A remark he made to Charlie Lewis to the effect that he would soon have a hole in the ground for himself, is the only thing that goes to show that the act was premeditated. He will undoubtedly be buried at Virginia City, where his relatives reside.

Deceased was about 30 years of age, a native of Nevada and well known as a successful business man.

Bank Full.

The Silver State says the Humboldt stood eight feet above low water mark at the bridge gauge Friday evening. It is now bank full where it is unobstructed by dams, and in many places is spreading over the bottoms. Several dams have been washed out. In some instances the water has cut a new channel, leaving the dam high and dry. This is the case at Dunphy's big dam near Argenta.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. Feb. 21-sty.

WHAT ON EARTH!

In the reason people will not, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unequal satisfaction as DEEGO'S BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its w... will cost you nothing.
